1st Saturday. Quakertown Breakfast hosted by Kris Hoot.

13 retreads came to breakfast on 9 bikes. There seemed to be confusion among the restaurant staff as to what group we were with because they had another group coming in at 10:30. A new staff of workers from last month and nobody knew we were coming. Maybe it's time to look for another restaurant. Any way we had breakfast and then everyone wanted to know my health situation, so I gave everyone a report on my health and then other Retread events were discussed.

Afterwards Lee Blauvelt led a group of 7 Retreads on 6 bikes on a backroads ride to Blackmans Powersports In Emmaus, where they met up with 2 other Retreads, Claude Shappelle and Jim Vitale. Claude bought a new scooter there that Saturday. Congratulations Claude. Photos of them are on the Retreads Facebook page.

If anyone wants to lead an after breakfast ride, don't be shy. Doesn't matter you go just ride somewhere. Until next month - Kris Hoot

2nd Saturday Lancaster Breakfast hosted by Harold & Linda Robinson

A bit of the chill in the air but it was clear (no haze in the air), and the skies were blue. We had 14 Retreads inside eating breakfast at the Golden Corral as 13 bikes sat outside waiting to be ridden. It was great seeing everyone, as always. We went over the upcoming events for the summer, sounds like it is going to be a busy summer. The free breakfasts were won by Ed Derry and Ed Carvell (must be something about the name), and the 50/50 was won by Ron Linderman. After breakfast 11 Retreads on 10 bikes headed out (destination the Arctic Circle in Churchville MD). We had a rest stop at the Royal Farms in Delta, from there some departed and headed home. The discussion at the rest stop was whether or not we were interested in food for lunch or just ice cream. Guess What? Ice cream won out! Thereby we never made it to the Arctic Circle but went to Keyes Creamery behind the Arctic Circle for ice cream. The discussion there was to play miniature golf or not to play miniature golf. As the Gills still had a 3 hour ride ahead of them and it was getting late we headed back to Ronks where they gassed up and headed home. Four of us decided to head up route 30 to the Lost Treasure Miniature Golf and get a round of golf in. From there we headed home. It was a long day but a lot of fun!

Linda and I would like to thank everyone for coming to breakfast and we hope to see you next month. Thank you, - , - Linda and Harold 3rd Saturday Shartlesville Breakfast hosted by Rick & Darlene Horst.

What a beautiful day! Summer is upon us and there are plenty of activities for everyone to join in on the fun. We had a great turn out today with 23 people, including a new person filling out his application at the breakfast. Welcome Brian Burt! As usual there was a lot of talking and discussing upcoming events. The 50/50 today was won by our waitress, Deb. She was very surprised and had some tears in her eyes when I handed her the money. Greg was very kind to purchase the tickets for her. He definitely made her day. After breakfast 10 bikes and 12 people went on a scenic ride, ending at Patches Family Creamery. Lee joined us there in the car since Nona was trying out the back of Diane's bike. She had a great time so we hope to see more of Nona on the back of a bike. A few people were looking forward to getting a rhubarb sundae but unfortunately they were out of the rhubarb sauce they use to make them. We'll have to wait till next year. Rick & I want to thank everyone who joined us today. Our breakfast in July will be hosted by Chris Kreitzer. Come out and support him as he fills in for us. - Rick & Darlene

Columbia Ice Cream Social

Three Retreads and two guests enjoyed good food and conversation at Hinkles.

Amish Dinner

With the threat of thunderstorms in many areas and throughout the day, we decided to cancel the ride before the meal. We all met at the Community Services of Georgetown and continued on to the meal location. 18 retreads gather around the long table set up for our group. There were 2 other smaller groups there as well. We had a delicious meal made and served by the Amish women. The dishes were started at one end of the table, on both sides, and were passed down through. The dishes were passed again, until most were emptied. Then came dessert of ice cream, a raspberry pudding to put on top and whoopie pies. I don't know about the rest of the group but I definitely ate more than I should have. We closed the afternoon by singing a hymn. Our host, Ruth Lapp told us we were the noisy table and that she was disappointed we did not come on our motorcycles because she was looking forward to seeing all of them. We stood in the driveway talking for a while before going our separate ways. Rick & I want to thank everyone who came out for this event. Maybe we will have to do it again sometime. Rick & Darlene Horst

New England Rally

This year the New England Rally was held in Warwick Rhode Island from June 19th as early registration to June 22nd 2023. There were 64 Retread members in attendance, 2 from Connecticut, 9 from Massachusetts, 5 from Maine, 30 from Rhode Island, 12 from Pennsylvania, 1 from Maryland, 4 from Delaware and 1 from Arizona. The one from Arizona was Jeff Murch who drove 2650 miles. There were 3 planned rides for each day of the rally as well as Self-Guided rides for those who wanted to adventure out on their own. There were multiple items donated by members and other Retread groups for the drop ticket raffle as well as the candy guessing game. Wednesday night of the rally we had our entertainment which was put on by the Polynesian Fusion belly dancers in which Laura and George Matta own but are also Rhode Island Retread members. The New England Retreads did have a best poker hand game in which all the monies raised will go to St. Jude's Children Hospital. Paul Levin the Rhode Island rep won the 50/50 this year even after I had to persuade him to buy some additional 50/50 tickets, he was quite happy that he did purchase the extra tickets. The center pieces were beautiful and were given out as door prizes they were made by Elaine Levin. They also had a beautiful quilt made by Marilyn Dutton, the $200.00 in cash prize and 3 other beautiful baskets for their special raffle prizes this year. Ron Cardin indicated that there will be a New England Rally in 2024 however the location is unknown at this time as is the actual date. Once that information and location has been set in stone a flyer will be made available for all Retread members. The Crown Plaza Hotel was absolutely beautiful and very accommodating – breakfast was provided at the hotel for all members who had a room at the hotel and the staff was very helpful with any questions the members might have had as well during the time we were at the Rally. The weather was good, they were calling for some showers on Thursday but everyone came back from their rides safe and dry. Friday however was a different story – those coming back to Pa did get rained on and coming over the bridge it was foggy, but riding in numbers made a difference as we were able to be seen a lot better.....until next months rally, hope to see you in Franklin Pa!! -Greg and Diane Gill
